 Activities

- Today – Bible Classes for all ages.
- Today – LTC, 12:30 - 2:00.
- March 2 – We will begin a study of Genesis on Wednesday evenings. This class will cover many aspects of this portion of God’s word and we will discuss how it pertains to us today. We begin with the creation in the first session, so please read and meditate on Genesis 1. There is no better place to be Wednesday night than with the saints breathing in this fascinating portion of God’s Golden message. You’ll be glad you did.
–Tim Driver
- March 3-5, Marriage Seminar with Bill & Pam Farrel at the Civic Center.
  - March 3, Breakthroughs in Communication
  - March 4, Ministry-Minded Marriages
  - March 5, The Best Decisions a Couple Can Make
- March 12, Ladies Tea at the building, 2:00. There are sign up sheets in the foyer. Please see them for what you can bring.
- Coed Softball league, April & May for ages 14 and up. See Scott Tubb or Lynn Shinsky if you would like to play. Registration is soon, so don’t delay

Thursday evening Bill and Pam Farrel will be doing a seminar at the World Harvest Center, 1012 N. Butler, beginning at 7:00 p.m. This seminar is titled, “Breakthroughs in Communication.” Good marriages can have breakdowns in communication at times and struggling marriages typically will have major issues stemming from a lack of communication. The cost is $40.00, a small price to pay for improved communications. If you have tickets to go to the Saturday seminar the cost is only $20.00.

Saturday is the main seminar at the Farmington Civic Center and it begins at 8:30 a.m. and goes to 4:00 p.m. Its theme is “The Best Decisions a Couple Can Make” and it will be based on the Farrel’s book of a similar title. Cost of this seminar is $50.00 per couple. Again, not bad for strengthening marriage.

Last year the Farrel’s were here and they went through material called “Men are like Waffles and Women are Like Spaghetti.” If you want you know how well they work together and have a good idea of the quality of material they present. Marriage, like anything else requires a bit of maintenance. When we work on little courtesies every day and strive to be good listeners, we can keep our marriages running smoothly. But, take them for granted and the wear and tear on emotions will catch up and there will be problems.

Plan a weekend of marriage renewal. You’ll be glad you did.

Blessings, –Gene
